JAPANESE PLAN NEW INVASION, BARROWS' VIEW

ORIENTAL MENACE TOLD

Fight on Alien Law Seen as "Smoke Screen" to Cover Up Other Movements.

Berkeley.—Japan is raising a "smoke screen" in California to detract attention from some bold move of aggression in Asia is the opinion of President David P. Barrows of the University of California. This is his explanation of the reason why Japan is resisting so strenuously the enactment of anti-alien land laws in this State. He says his opinion is formed by past performances of the Japanese Barrows said:

Always before, when Japan has resisted some move on our part toward the restriction of immigration into America by the yellow races, she has covered up some move of aggression in Asia. The United States is the only world power in a position, or with the reason, for interfering with the expansion of the Japanese in Asia. Japan knows this probably better than we do, and she is proceeding carefully.

Not that we as Americans would wish to restrict her honest progress in Asia. It is only her progress by intrigue and political maneuvers that we are not in accord with.

CAMPBELL CLUB WOMEN BUSY

The Country Woman's Club held a most interesting meeting Monday. Considerable business was before the club, one matter being a communication regarding the S. P. station park in which both the Improvement Club and the Country Woman's Club are interested.

Dr. W. I. Merrill was present and gave a comprehensive discussion of the two measures to appear on the November ballot concerning compulsory vaccination and anti-vivsection as it should more properly be designated animal experimentation. He showed by government statistics how the percentage of cases of disease and death from smallpox, typhoid, diphtheria, and other more prevalent diseases have been decreased by inoculation thru vaccination and injection of various serums.

If animal experimentation is cut off by legislation the preparation of serums and testing of their strength would be impossible and these life-saving products of scientific research unavailable.

The value of compulsory vaccination has been demonstrated in our state university where smallpox cases, brought by students from mining districts, but now when these cases develop there is no spread of the disease to other attendants. Cases of serious illness and a few cases of death have not been the result of the smallpox serum but lack of care in sterilization before the injection or infection of the wound after, and consequent development of blood poison, as in any similar case. During the recent war, no death of a soldier or sailor resulted from vaccination.

The subject as designated for the day was postponed as there are some changes to be made in the program.

Firestone

Why did sales of Firestone 3½-inch tires increase 96% the first six months of this year?

The motoring public found in the product exactly what it demanded—a balanced tire—uniform service.

You, multiplied by thousands, getting your most miles per dollar expended for tires, demonstrated the efficiency of the balanced 3½—the Firestone.

Firestone built a single plant (Plant No. 2) to specialize in tires for small cars and got results which have been passed on to you at low cost—most miles per dollar.

It is more than thickness of tread, the mystery of rubber compounding, the size of the breaker strip, the number of plies of fabric, the heavy cushion or the greater air displacement that has put greater tire mileage—more economy—more comfort at your call.

It is the balanced co-ordination of all parts of the Firestone 3½ by specialists who have given eighteen years' study and practice to tire needs. Ask your dealer.

"Pay by Check"

Many years ago a man who owed a bill and the man to whom the money was due met on Central Avenue. Four weeks later they met again. The debtor was asked by the creditor for payment. The debtor said: "Why, I paid that last month; Don't you remember?" The other replied: "I remember you offered the money on the street, all right; but I didn't take it, because I didn't have the change."

They quarreled over the point, and to this day, after twenty-five years, are not on speaking terms. And to this day no one knows, from any tangible evidence, whether the bill was ever paid or not.

"Pay by check," your banker says, and most wisely.

Now your banker hasn't subsidized your grocer, to help pay for this advertisement. It's inserted for two reasons: First, for your protection and ours—we might quarre' over your last month's grocery bill tomorrow, unless you can show a canceled check; and second, to show how a'l legitimate businesses are tied together—what is good for your banker is good for your grocer. And for you, too.

"Pay by check," is sound business advice; and following that advice is top-notch business practice.

C'MON IN, IT'S FINE

The management of the California Prune an Apricot Growers, Inc., on Thursday announced the opening of a new and separate pool for the marketing of growers' deliveries excluded in the closing of the first pool. This action is tantamount to "throwing out a lifeline" to non-members of the association, who, during the past few weeks, have been confronted with the possibility of sacrificing their prunes at less than 6 cents as a result of a general slump in markets and its blighting influence on the business o fthe independent packers.

This action will make more grower-friends for the association and ultimately secure an increased number of grower mem-

EVAPORATOR BURNED CAPACITY BE DOUBLED

The residents of Campbell were startled from their beds Friday night by the peal of the fire bell and rushed out to learn that the new prune evaporator belonging to F. O. Bohnett and J. T. Morgan was afire. The Campbell fire company responded to the call and was able to save the nearby buildings, one a small dwelling house very close to the plant.

The fire was cause by the clogging of the oil pipes, resulting in a flood of the furnace. The plant was housed in a low wooden structure, about 35x60 feet, and the fire was well started before being discovered. The building was completely demolished and about fifty tons of dried prunes, the property of F. O. Bohnett, J. T. Morgan and L. Hiatt, were burned, making a complete loss of about $18,000, with $13,000 insurance.

Mr. Bohnett intends to rebuild at once making a fire proof building which will be of a larger unit, the 25-ton capacity. He is very enthusiastic over the results obtained with this evaporator and the rapidity with which the fruit can be handled.

WCTU TO HOLD TEACHERS' RECEPTION

On Wednesday, Oct. 29th, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union met with Mrs. Arnott, one of the "shut-ins." Many fragrant and beautiful flowers were brought to cheer the dear invalid.

The subject, "Woman and Civics," is down for the first meeting in October and Mrs. M. J. Wilson was given charge of the program. How to Avoid Tire Trouble

Weekly Hints to Tire Users

By E. T. WALKER

NO. 5. BRAKES.

Brakes should be kept evenly adjusted and not too tight. When too tight they grab, which tears the tread off the tire and causes a thin spot.

When one brake is tighter than the other the stopping strain will come on one tire more than the other.

Notes from Jewish Relief Headquarters

Mr. H. A. Binder, of Sacramento, drops into our headquarters to assure us of his hearty support, and Mr. M. M. Lichtenstein, of Bakersfield, visits us for the same purpose. We thank them sincerely for their offer of assistance in our work.

In sending a voluntary contribution to Chairman Gunst, Mr. Mark Levi writes as follows: "I cheerfully enclose this check toward relieving the suffering of the innocent little tots in the war troubled countries. May God grant you long life in your humane mission of love and mercy."

Hon. Hugo K. Asher, the well known San Francisco attorney, writes Chairman Gunst as follows: "I note that you are the chairman of the committee to raise funds for the suffering Jewish people in Europe. If I can be of service to you in this matter, I shall be pleased to cooperate at your call."

Mr. Louis M. Cole, a leading business man of Los Angeles, sends best wishes for the success of our Northern California campaign, with a personal line to the director that "some of these days when your work is all completed, I hope you will decide to make California your permanent home."

We have received from New York headquarters several thousand large "Share" posters, which are to be used to create enthusiasm in our campaign. These posters are really works of art and are autographed by Messrs. Jacob Schiff, Louis Marshall, Felix M. Warburg and Nathan Straus.

Famous men who have indorsed the campaign for a relief fund for non-sectarian aid include Secretary of State Bainbridge Colby, Robert Lansing, former secretary of state; Herbert Hoover, Baron de Cartier, Belgian ambassador to the United States, and H. P. Davison, head of the American Red Cross

It is planned to build brick tenement houses to help take care of the unsheltered thousands at Brest-Litovsk according to Herbert C. Thompson During the summer temporary wooden houses are being put up as fast as there are funds collected to carry on the work and every fight is going to be made to get the folks under shelter before next winter.

"For God's sake, raise all money you can. Conditions indescribable. In Poland and Lithuania 1,000,000 people perishing from hunger and cold; death rate 10 per cent. Soup kitchens and asylums for aged and children closed for lack of funds. Children cannot attend school on account of extreme weakness and lack of clothing. America practically sole help." Lansing

A very active branch of the Peoples Jewish Relief Committee has been organized in San Francisco with several hundred members. Mr. H. Koblik 1010 Fillmore street, a well known business man, is chairman of the organization. Meetings are held at the B'nai Brith Hall, 149 Eddy street, each Wednesday night. This organization has promised hearty cooperation in our campaign next month.

"My friends, the world is really not at the brink of a great disaster, but of utmost disaster, and if there is anything of high resolve, of fine courage and of unselfish purpose in humanity the appeal so powerfully made by the mute suffering and silence of these conditions, so inadequately emphasized by any word we can utter, is worthy of a response that is only measured by your virtue, by your vitality and by your strength."—Brainbridge Colby.

JEWS ASK HELP OF GENTILES FOR FIRST TIME

For the first time in the history of their race, the Jews are asking help for their people from those who are not of their own blood.

They are doing it because 6,000,000 Jews in eastern and central Europe (almost twice as many as the number of Jews in the United States) are actually in need of food at this moment.

The Jews are asking help from the whole United States because there are 75,000 homeless orphans and hundreds of thousands of other hungry children in eastern and central Europe. In Poland alone 800,000 youngsters would die if the help of the United States were suddenly withdrawn. Every orphanage is full, and

They are asking help because $35,000,000 will save the Jewish race in Poland, Lithuania, Rumania, Czecho-Slovakia, Palestine, Siberia and the Orient from starvation during the coming year. It will enable the milk stations and soup kitchens to keep open for that period, and new ones to be established. It will establish orphanages, it will give children food and a place to sleep.

Because in all these countries homeless Jewish babies not yet a year old are sleeping on the streets at night, hundreds upon hundreds of frightened, hungry children, huddled together like little animals because in Warsaw children five and six years old are often no larger than babies a few months old, because all over eastern Europe an unprecedented number of parents have gone insane, as helpless they sat and watched the children starve, because Americans have shown that they know that humanity is a far bigger thing than religion or race or any other superficial distinction—for all these reasons the Jews are asking help for their people from you.

CONCRETE PIPE FOR IRRIGATING

A farmer said:
"I prepared an irrigating ditch with much labor
banking it carefully filling in the low places looking for squirrel holes then started the pump

I followed the flow of water
trying to prevent breaks in the ditch and runways to squirrel holes shoveling here and working hard and fast wearing myself out

I spent hours of time and a lot of money
at the pump
which costs money before the water
reached the endd
of the irrigating ditch

I realized the fearful waste of effort power and precious water—from evaporation and percolation
—more than a third of the water pumped was wasted

I realized that as the water level lowered
As it is doing yearly my well would have to be made deeper requiring more power to raise water for irrigation

I began o look about for a better way
and found that pipe
installed underground carried the water to where it was wanted
faster than I couldd walk there after starting the pump

I discvered there was no waste
since all the water pumped ran through the pipe thus saving power
as well as my time

I found that the saving of water
saving of power
saving of labor
saving of time
paid fr the pipe
and installation in one year

I investigated different kinds of pipe
for irrigating

I learned that concrete pipe made at home in an iron form and set out to cure looked alright
but wouldn't stand pressure when the flow of water came—that it disintegrated and
"fell down" when most needed

I talked with people who had made and installed their own concrete pipe and were dissatisfied and claimed that concrete pipe for irrigating was a failure

I had a feeling in the back of my head that the principle of concrete pipe
installed underground
was correct

I read about a concrete aqueduct
built by the ancient Romans still in good repair and carrying water

One was built at Segovia Spain
about 109 A. D.
and is still in service

Those ancient engineers didn't understand the principle of the siphon but carried their aqueducts over valleys by arches sometimes running two or three tiers

Then there are the concrete aqueducts from Lake Owen to Los Angles
and those now building
from Hetc Hetchy
to San Francisco

These observations led me to the MERRIT CO.
218 Growers' Bank Building
San Jose
where I learned of a different method in use from that of the home-made variety

There the concrete pipe is made by machinery
every piece alike
sure to fit—with accurate quantities of each ingredient

The pipe is then set out to cure for 28 days and kept constantly wet all that time
so the cement will "set" and attain its maximum strength

The process of making the concrete pipe has gradually been perfected with the growing demand

One of their recent installations is at the San Jose Country Club where the pressure is 40 feet annd the service has proved most satisfactory

The making of concrete pipe for irrigation is only a part of the job of the
MERRITT CO.

The most valuable service they render the land owner is that of their engineers who study the situation and advise where and how to install the pipe to obtain the greatest efficiency and best return for the money invested

It is my advice that
for the money invested,
you call on them"
